Brothers, join with other men for a retreat focused on fanning the flames of transformation and the power of writing to make this possible. Throughout our time together at the Jesuit Spiritual Center at Milford, we will work on accessing our own inner author to help us make sense of our experiences. We will create a space using nature, meditation, brotherhood, and of course the inspiration of other poets, to talk and write about life's mysteries.

Brian Mueller and Tom Sparough will be retreat content carriers. Brian is a graphic designer and poet, and has previously offered this retreat for the Indiana-Michigan MALEs and the Ohio Chapter of Illuman. Tom is also known as the "Space Painter" and is a performance artist and writer specializing in keynotes and programs that are both entertaining and educational.
